Clariant Oil Services Recognized by Petrobras with Suppliers Award for Health and Wellness

- Clariant receives the Petrobras Best Suppliers Award for its VIVAZ Program supporting employee health and wellness
- The pillars of the VIVAZ program encourage healthier lifestyles, work-life balance, and safety and social responsibility
- The program is driven by a multidisciplinary team of certified health professionals implementing regular activities, workshops, and preventive care initiatives

HOUSTON, TX, OCTOBER 24, 2024

Clariant Oil Services, a leading producer and supplier of specialty oilfield production chemicals and services to the oil and gas industry, was honored with the Petrobras Best Suppliers Award in the Health category for its VIVAZ Program. This wellness initiative fosters positive habits and holistic well-being for employees and their families.

Aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) for Good Health and Well-Being, the program promotes balanced lifestyles and a healthy work-life dynamic. Internal policies are crafted by the company to enhance quality of life at work, focusing on the respect and integrity of employees, both as individuals and professionals. The initiative is built on three core pillars:

- VIVAZ Health: Encourages healthier lifestyles that help prevent physical and mental illness
- VIVAZ Harmony: Supports balance in professional, personal, and family life
- VIVAZ Environment: Emphasizes safety, sustainability, social responsibility, and volunteering

"The VIVAZ Program fosters a positive company culture, inspiring habits and routines that benefit not only our employees but also their families," said George Nunes, Clariant Head of Oil Services. "We are honored to receive this recognition from a valued customer and industry leader in oil exploration and production, which reaffirms our commitment to creating a supportive and thriving work environment."

A multidisciplinary team of specialists, in collaboration with company leadership and employee input, drives the program's ongoing development. They regularly assess best practices and key performance indicators to ensure the program's effectiveness in empowering employees and helping them reach their full potential.
