

Biography

Margot Bon

Home & Personal Care Lab Manager, Syensqo

With a background in Chemical Engineering, Margot began her career at Syensqo 10 years ago. She has held various positions in Research & Innovation, including an enriching international experience in Seoul. Over the past five years, Margot has specialized in the Personal Care market, passionately developing innovative ingredients and formulations to support customers in the Beauty market. Her work is particularly focused on pioneering new solutions for hair care, driving advancements that enhance both product efficacy and consumer satisfaction.